COLLABORATE Space Cloud-Based Video Conferencing Now Allows Users to See as Many as 49 Video Call Participants at Once

August 11, 2020

Other new features added to enrich the experience

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 11, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ClearOne (NASDAQ:CLRO) has expanded the number of participants visible during a COLLABORATE® Space meeting to 49. The 7x7 gallery view enables greater engagement between the host and participants in large meetings. Other new features have been added to enrich the experience.

See up to 49 video participants in a meeting.

Users can now easily reach out to colleagues, business partners, or customers outside of their enterprise group who are also using COLLABORATE Space by inviting them to share their Space contact information. Pro and Enterprise-level users can enjoy meetings with up to 100 participants and will be increased to 300 participants soon.

Also added, meeting organizers can receive an email summary with the list of participants who joined any meeting, classroom, or webinar, allowing organizers to easily generate attendance reports.

The COLLABORATE Space Classroom option now supports up to 150 participants and can be expanded through additional licensing options in increments of 100. Classroom is available as an option with all three COLLABORATE Space models – Basic, Pro, and Enterprise.

Additionally, COLLABORATE Space is now offered as an optional self-purchase model thru the collaboratespace.net web portal. Purchases, renewals, and updates can be made from the web portal and are immediately accessible.

ClearOne's COLLABORATE Space is a powerful collaboration application with a full suite of audio, video, and meeting tools in a persistent space.
