InfoComm Recognizes ClearOne CEO with 2012 InfoComm International Women in AV Award

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 15, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- ClearOne (NASDAQ: CLRO) today announced that Zee Hakimoglu, President, CEO and Chairman of ClearOne, received the 2012 InfoComm International Women in AV Award; created to raise awareness of the growing role of female professionals in the male-dominated field of audiovisual technology. These award winners are in the upper echelon of Audio Visual professionals and symbolize the strength of entrepreneurship and excellence in technology management. Hakimoglu received the award as recognition for her work with ClearOne and dedication to the professional audiovisual and communications industries.

"I am honored to be recognized by InfoComm, the largest, single most influential global trade organization representing the audiovisual information communications industries," said Hakimoglu. "As the market rapidly evolves, with AV and IT network convergence on the infrastructure side, and audio, video and data convergence on the applications side; the opportunity for our industry practitioners and manufacturers will continue to grow. The professional AV market has been ClearOne's foundation, and remains our passion."

Hakimoglu joined ClearOne in December 2003 with a broad background of executive high-tech management. Under Ms. Hakimoglu's leadership, ClearOne has received ongoing recognition for its industry-leading product strategy; alongside some of the largest companies in the audiovisual industry.
